

NEWS OF THE CHURCH - March 31, 2024

The Second Mile Offering for April will be

Young Adult Global Missions
Scholarships to enable young adults to participate in the mission to Guatemala.

We thank Diane Milazzo for beautifully arranging the Easter flowers.

The church office will be closed on Monday, April 1st.

The Cross on the Lawn welcomes all to come and worship with us, and creates a space for meditation and prayer during the Lenten season. Starting Palm Sunday, supplies and instructions are available at the Cross for a meditative activity for both adults and children.

The theme for VBS this year is Camp Firelight, June 17 - 21. Registration is now open! Be a part of this summer camp adventure with God!

Ladies, you're invited to Northminster Church's Crafts and Community event April 13th, 9 AM - 1 PM. Bring the project you've been wanting to finish or the supplies to start a new one. We will gather to share our creativity and our stories. If you don't have a project, we'll have some supplies on hand. Lunch will be provided! RSVP on the Northminster website or to Teri Spindler at terispindler@fuse.net by March 20th.

On April 28th at 3:00 PM. River's Edge Brass Band will present a free concert at Northminster. Award-winning River's Edge is comprised of highly skilled brass and percussionist musicians from the tri-state area. Also featured, will be Karen Balogh playing Camille Saint-Saëns Organ Concerto with the band.
